2. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION OF THE COMPANY

2.1 Companies (Amendment) Act 2014 and 2017

The Amendment Act 2014, which was passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and took effect in phases on 1 July 2015 and 3 January 2016, introduced wide-ranging changes to the Companies Act. The changes aim to reduce regulatory burden on companies, provide for greater business flexibility and improve the corporate governance landscape in Singapore. The key changes include the introduction of the multiple proxies regime to enfranchise indirect investors and CPF investors, provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents, and the merging of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into one document called the “constitution”. The Amendment Act 2017, which was passed in Parliament on 10 March 2017 and took effect in phases on 31 March 2017, 23 May 2017 and 11 October 2017, introduced further changes to the Companies Act, which aim to ensure that the corporate regulatory regime in Singapore remains robust. One of the key changes includes the removal of the requirement for a company to have a common seal.

2.2 Amendment to the Listing Manual

On 22 March 2017, the SGX-ST announced amendments to the Listing Manual (which took effect from 31 March 2017) to inter alia enable listed companies to use electronics communications to transmit annual reports and other documents to their shareholders, provided such companies have obtained consent, whether express, deemed or implied, from the relevant shareholder(s).

Rule 730 of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles of association or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

2.3 New Constitution

The Company is accordingly proposing to adopt a new constitution (the “New Constitution”), which will consist of the memorandum and articles of association of the Company which were in force immediately before 4 July 2005 (the “Existing Constitution”), and incorporate amendments to take into account the changes to the Companies Act introduced pursuant to the Amendment Act 2014 and the Amendment Act 2017 (the “Amendment Acts”). At the same time, the New Constitution will be updated for consistency with the prevailing listing rules of the SGX-ST in compliance with Rule 730 of the Listing Manual, as well as to take into account the provisions of the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 relating to the collection, use and disclosure of personal data, and to streamline and rationalise certain other provisions in the Existing Constitution.

2.4 Renumbering

As a result of the addition of new Regulations, deletion of certain articles in the Existing Constitution, and amendments to the Existing Constitution arising from the Amendment Act 2014 and the Amendment Act 2017, the Regulations have subsequently been renumbered.

Capitalised terms not defined in this Circular shall have the meanings as ascribed to them in the New Constitution.

2.5 Summary of Provisions

The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the Existing Constitution which have been amended, newly added or are significantly updated from equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution and should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Schedule II herein. For Shareholders’ ease of reference, Schedule I sets out a comparison of the proposed New Constitution against the Existing Constitution, with all additions underlined and any deletions marked with a strikethrough.

Shareholders are advised to read the New Constitution which is set out in Schedule II before deciding on the Special Resolution relating to the Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution.

In the paragraphs below, for convenience, the expression “Recital” will refer to the recitals under the New Constitution, the “Regulation” will refer to the provisions under the New Constitution, and the expression “Article” will be used for the relevant cross-references to the equivalent provisions of the Existing Constitution.

2.5.1 Companies Act

The following Regulations include provisions which are in line with the Companies Act, as amended and/or included pursuant to the Amendment Act 2014 and the Amendment Act 2017.

- (a) Regulation 2 (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 2, which is the interpretation section of the New Constitution, includes the following additional/revised provisions:-
- (i) A new definition of “Constitution” to mean the Constitution of the Company for the time being in force. This aligns the terminology used in the New Constitution with the Companies Act, as amended by the Amendment Act 2014. In particular, new Section 4(13) of the Companies Act collectively deems the memorandum and articles of association of a company prior to 3 January 2016 (being the date on which Section 4(13) came into effect) to be the company’s constitution.
  - (ii) New definitions of “registered address” and “address” to make it clear that these expressions mean, in relation to any shareholder, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified.
  - (iii) A new definition of “Regulations” as the Regulations of the Company contained in the New Constitution for the time being in force. This effectively replaces the provision in the Existing Constitution which defines “Articles”. This ensures consistency with the new terminology used in the Companies Act, as amended by the Amendment Act 2014.
  - (iv) A revised definition of “Statutes” to make it clear that these include all laws, by-laws, regulations, orders and/or official directions.
  - (v) A new definition of “in writing” and “written” to make it clear that these include any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form.
  - (vi) A revised provision stating that the expressions “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the SFA. This follows the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which related to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Amendment Act 2014.
  - (vii) A new provision stating that the expressions “current address”, “relevant intermediary”, “treasury shares” and “electronic communication” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Companies Act. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the Amendment Act 2014.
  - (viii) A new provision stating that a special resolution shall be effective for any purpose for which an ordinary resolution is expressed to be required under the New Constitution.
- (b) Regulation 5 (Article 5 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 5, which relates to the issuance of shares has been revised to include a new provision which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company. This is in line with the new Section 68 of the Companies Act.
- (c) Regulation 12 (Article 12 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 12 provides that any expenses (including brokerage or commission) incurred directly by the Company in relation to the issue of new shares may be paid out of the proceeds of such issue of new shares or the Company’s share capital, but such payment shall not be taken as a reduction of the amount of share capital of the Company. This is in line with Section 67 of the Companies Act.

- (d) Regulation 18 (Article 18 of the Existing Constitution). The requirement to state (inter alia) the number and class of the shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares has been included. This follows the amendments to Section 123(2) of the Companies Act.
- (e) Regulation 52 (Article 52 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 52, which relates to the Company's power to purchase its own shares, has been clarified to include that any share which is so purchased or acquired by the Company shall, unless held in treasury in accordance with the Act, be deemed to be cancelled immediately on purchase or acquisition of the Company. This is in line with Section 76B(5) of the Companies Act.
- (f) Regulations 60(1)(d), 60(2)(a) and 60(2)(b) (Articles 60(1)(d) and 60(2) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 60(1), which relates to the Company's power to alter its share capital, has new provisions which empower the Company, by ordinary resolution, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with new Section 73(1) of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such redenominations. Regulation 60(2)(a), which relates to the power to reduce capital, has been clarified to provide that a company may by special resolution reduce its share capital and any other undistributable reserves in any manner subject to any requirement, authorisation and consent required by law. This is in line with Section 78C of the Companies Act. New Regulation 60(2)(b), which relates to the power to convert shares, is a new provision to empower the Company, by special resolution, to convert one class of shares into another class of shares. This is in line with new Section 74A of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such conversions.
- (g) Regulation 66 (Article 66 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 66, which relates to the holding of the Company's annual general meeting, has been revised to require the Company to hold its annual general meeting within 4 months after the end of each financial year in the case of a public company that is listed, or within 6 months after the end of each financial year in the case of any other company. This follows the amendments to Section 175(1) of the Companies Act.
- (h) Regulations 85(1), 90(2), 93(1) and 93(2) (Articles 85(1), 90(2) and 93 of the Existing Constitution). These Regulations, which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders, have new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Act 2014. The multiple proxies regime allows "relevant intermediaries", such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the Central Providence Fund Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:-
- (i) Regulation 90(2) provides that save as otherwise provided in the Companies Act, a Shareholder who is a "relevant intermediary" may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder's form of proxy appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with the new Section 181(1C) of the Companies Act.
- (ii) Regulation 85(1)(a) provides that in the case of a Shareholder who is a "relevant intermediary" and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with new Section 181(1D) of the Companies Act.
- (iii) Regulation 93(2) provides that the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours (previously 48) before that time of the relevant meeting. Consequential changes have been made in 71(3) to clarify that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with the new Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA.

- (iv) The cut-off time for the deposit of instruments appointing proxies has also been extended from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for the holding the general meeting in Regulation 93(1), which relates to the deposit of proxies. This in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act 2014.
- (i) Regulation 105 (Article 105 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 105, which relates to the Directors' declaration of interests, has been updated to extend the obligation of a Director to disclose interests in transactions or proposed transactions with the Company, or any office or property held which might create duties or interests in conflict with those as a Director, to also apply to a chief executive officer (or such person(s) holding an equivalent position). This is in line with Section 156 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to Amendment Act 2014.
- (j) Regulation 115 (Article 115 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 115, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business, clarifies that the business and affairs of the Company are to be managed by or under the direction or supervision of the Directors. This is in line with Section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to Amendment Act 2014.
- (k) Regulation 131 (Article 131 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 131, which relates to when and how minutes shall be kept, has been expanded to include a new provision to provide that the Company's records may be kept either in hard copy or electronic form. This is in line with the new Sections 395 and 396 of the Companies Act.
- (l) Regulations 132 (Article 132 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 132, which relate to the common seal of the Company, have been revised to state that the provisions apply where the Company has a common seal. This is in line with Section 41A of the Companies Act (as introduced by the Amendment Act 2017), which provides that a company may have a common seal but need not have one. Further, it has been amended such that the Company may execute a document described or expressed as a deed by affixing the common seal or in the manner prescribed by the Act as an equivalent to sealing. This is in line with the new Sections 41B and 41C of the Act pursuant to the Amendment Act 2017.
- (m) Regulations 151, 152, 153 and 154 (Articles 151, 152, 153, and 154 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 154, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Shareholders, additionally provides that such documents may be sent less than fourteen days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with the new Section 203(2) of the Companies Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than fourteen days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this provision, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholder and the SGX-ST at least fourteen days before the date of its annual general meeting. Regulation 154 has also been amended to provide that any member or holder of debentures to whom a copy of these documents has not been sent shall be entitled to receive a copy free of charge on application at the Office.

The references to the Company's "profit and loss account" have also been updated in Regulations 151 to 153 to substitute them with references to the "financial statements" for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act.

- (n) Regulations 163(1), 163(2), 163(3) and 163(4). New Regulations 163(1), 163(2), 163(3) and 163(4), which relate to the service of notices to Shareholders, are new provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to new Section 387C of the Companies Act. Companies can, subject to certain statutory safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures so long as the specified modes of electronic transmission are set out in the Constitution. In particular, the new Regulations provide that:-
- (i) Notices and documents may be sent to Shareholders using electronic communication either to a Shareholder's current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website.
  - (ii) For these purposes, a Shareholder is deemed to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communication and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document, pursuant to the implied consent regime permitted under the new Section 387C of the Companies Act. Notwithstanding, this is still subject to the applicable listing rules of the SGX-ST.
  - (iii) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Directors may decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communication, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communication if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time, pursuant to the deemed consent regime permitted under the new Section 387C of the Companies Act.

For the purposes of this paragraph 2.5.1(m):

- (aa) There is "express consent" if a Shareholder expressly agrees with the Company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communication. This is provided in the new Regulation 163(2) of the New Constitution.
- (bb) There is "implied consent" if the Constitution of the Company (a) provides for the use of electronic communication and specifies the mode of electronic communication, and (b) specifies that Shareholders agree to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communication. This is provided in the new Regulation 163(3) of the New Constitution.
- (cc) There is "deemed consent" if the Constitution of the Company (a) provides for the use of electronic communication and specifies the mode of electronic communication, and (b) specifies that Shareholders will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices or documents, and the Shareholder fails to make an election within the specified period of time. This is provided in the new Regulation 163(4) of the New Constitution.

Under new Section 387C of the Companies Act, regulations may be made to exclude any notice or document or any class of notices or documents from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act, provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communication under Section 387C of the Companies Act, and provide that a shareholder who is deemed to have consented to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communication may make a fresh election to receive such notice or document as a physical copy and the manner in which the fresh election may be made. Certain safeguards for the use of the deemed consent and implied consent regimes are prescribed under regulation 89C of the Companies (Amendment No. 3) Regulations 2015 of Singapore (the "Companies Regulations"). Under regulation 89D of the Companies Regulations and Rule 1207 of the Catalist Rules, (i) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to physically complete; (ii) notice of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred in that notices; (iii) notices or documents relating to take-over offers and rights issues; and (iv) notices by electronic communications are excluded from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act.

On 31 March 2017, amendments to the listing rules came into effect to permit listed issuers to send documents to shareholders electronically under the new regimes provided under the Companies Act, subject to the additional safeguards prescribed under the listing rules. Should the Company decide to make use of the new regimes to send documents electronically to Shareholders, the Company will comply with the applicable listing rules of the SGX-ST.

Where the Company uses electronic communications to send a document to a Shareholder, the Company shall inform the Shareholder as soon as practicable how to request a physical copy of the document, and where the notice or document is delivered by way of publishing the document on a website, the Company shall give a separate physical notice to the Shareholder. Such notice shall notify the Shareholder of the publication of the document on the website, the address of the website, the place on the website where the document may be accessed, how to access the document, and, if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available.

2.5.2 Listing Manual

Rule 730 of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment. The following Regulations have been updated for consistency with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in accordance with Rule 730 of the Listing Manual:

- (a) Regulation 47 (Article 47 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 47, which provides that where the Board refuses to register any transfer of shares, a notice of refusal must be sent out within a fixed period of time, such notice to include the facts which are considered to justify the refusal, has been revised from within one month to within ten market days after the date on which the transfer has been lodged. This is in line with Rule 733 of the Listing Manual.
- (b) Regulation 66 (Article 66 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 66, which relates to the duration and location where general meetings of the Company shall be held, has been updated to reflect the requirement of the Listing Manual, that general meetings of Company shall be held in Singapore, unless prohibited by relevant laws and regulations in the jurisdiction of its incorporation. This update is in line with Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Manual.
- (c) Regulations 80(1) and 81(1) (Articles 80 and 81(1) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 80(1), which relates to the method of voting at general meetings, is a new provision included to make it clear that if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all resolutions at general meeting shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). Consequential changes have been made to Regulation 81(1), which additionally provides that at least one scrutineer will be appointed if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST. ### 3. THE PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAME OF COMPANY

3.1 Rationale of the Change of Name

The Board is proposing to change the Company's name from "AA Group Holdings Ltd." to "HGH Holdings Ltd." to better represent the Group's new corporate identity and business strategy.

Over the last few years, the Group has progressively diversified and transformed into a logistics, construction and cabling company. Through acquisitions, the Group is principally engaged in the following businesses: (a) Supply and manufacturing of ready-mix concrete; (b) Manufacturing precast concrete products; (c) Providing one-stop high value-added general warehousing and logistics services, industrial, office space for engineering, manufacturing, industrial training and workers' dormitory facilities; and (d) Providing underground cable installation and road reinstatement services.

The three founders of the current principal businesses are Tan Poh Hee, Tan Poh Guan and Ng Chuan Heng. The name "HGH" stands for "Hee, Guan and Heng" which represent the name of each of the founders.

The Board is of the view that the new name "HGH Holdings Ltd." will more appropriately reflect the Company's new corporate profile and marketing direction going forward, and allow the public and the Company's business partners to identify and recognise the Company and Group under this new name. The Proposed Change of Name will be not affect any of the Shareholders' rights or the Group's daily business operations and financial standing.

3.2 Approvals

ACRA has given its approval for the use of the name “HGH Holdings Ltd.”. The proposed name has been reserved till 24 June 2020.

3.3 Administrative Procedures

Subject to the approval of Shareholders and registration by ACRA, the Company shall change its name from “AA Group Holdings Ltd.” to “HGH Holdings Ltd.” with effect from the issue by ACRA of the Certificate Confirming the Incorporation of the Company under the new name. The name “AA Group Holdings Ltd.” shall be substituted with “HGH Holdings Ltd.” wherever the former name appears in the Constitution. Apart from the substitution of the Company’s name, no amendments will be made to the Constitution.

The Company will make an announcement when the change of the Company’s name takes effect. Shareholders should note that the change of the Company’s name does not affect the legal status of the Company or any of the rights of the Shareholders, and existing Shares will continue to be traded on the SGX-ST.

3.4 Existing Share Certificates

Shareholders should note that the Change of Name does not affect the legal status of the Company. The Company will not recall existing share certificates which will continue to be prima facie evidence of legal title. No further action is required to be taken on the part of the Shareholders.
